

Relines can make-or-break your shutdown

Uptime

Metso works efficiently to reduce reline times and ensures reliable installation

Safety

Our team operates under strict safety procedures every step of the way

Planning

We plan your reline based on best practices from hundreds of global installations

Resources

Our trained reline crew saves you time and fills gaps in your process

Accountability

If unexpected issues occur, Metso will take immediate action

Metso focuses on what's critical to your success

Metso reline installation services

What you can expect

Every reline has three key parts

A professional labor crew trained and supervised by Metso experts

Standardized reline processes and safety procedures

Reline report with recommendations for safety and performance improvements

Available for all mills, crushers, and liner types, no matter the brand

What are your options

Metso has a range of relining services to suit your needs

Liner installation

Standard and straight forward agreement for one time relines

Installation + optimization

Focuses on continuous improvement using time and motion analysis (SMED)

Life Cycle Services

A component of our comprehensive shutdown packages

Why partner with Metso

It comes down to a combination of things

- ✓ Expertise
150+ years of innovation across the minerals processing plant
- ✓ Results oriented
Solutions built around what you want to achieve

- ✓ Global network
1500+ field technicians with rapid response time
- ✓ End-to-end offering
From standard to comprehensive programs

With a focus on safety throughout